STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

On May 1, 2007, Magistrate Judge Maria-Elena James issued an Order as part of the settlement of the above-captioned matter (which Magistrate Judge James successfully mediated). The Court agreed to hold a User Name and Password related to the domain name, www.xtube.com, for safe-keeping as collateral in case the Defendants missed a settlement payment and failed to cure such a non-payment. The Court has retained jurisdiction for purposes of enforcing the settlement agreement.

Pursuant to the Order, the Defendants filed the User Name and Password as a hard copy document with the Clerk of the Court.

The Defendants have exercised the early payment option of the settlement agreement and completely fulfilled all of their payment obligations for the full settlement amount.

The parties to this action, Plaintiff Io Group, Inc., and Defendants Webnovas Technologies, Inc. and Gonetmarket, Inc., hereby stipulate by and through their counsel of record that in light of the fact that the payment under the settlement agreement has been fully completed, the above-referenced User Name and Password information should be destroyed for security reasons as it is no longer necessary as part of the settlement process.
